

I feel the need for information is very much needed on XM radio for people like me who travel alot. I have friends who are truck drivers and they use these chanel's and information daily. I feel it is not right to just take it away.